I. Background

Wicomico County is engaged in litigation as a result of the opioid epidemic. This litigation involves multiple defendants and is part of a multidistrict litigation involving nearly every state. Beginning in late 2021/early 2022, some of the defendants in the multidistrict litigation have begun to settle the claims against them.

To date, the terms of the distribution are governed by the respective settlement agreements and a corresponding Memorandum of Understanding between the State and its litigating political subdivisions. The framework for the Maryland settlements is bifurcated. A portion of each settlement is paid directly to Wicomico County, while the remaining portion of the funds are paid to the State. The State does not have oversight of Wicomico County's expenditure of its direct payment. The State recognizes that there are state subdivisions which may have not participated in the litigation, yet were affected by the epidemic. To provide these communities aid based on their perceived need, the State set aside a large percentage of the Maryland settlement to be awarded to the State's subdivisions. This distribution will be through a State administered grant application and award process.

Maryland's Opioid Restitution Fund (ORF) was created in 2019 to receive all funds awarded to the State of Maryland through legal settlements with prescription opioid manufacturers and distributors. In 2022, Maryland established the ORF Advisory Council to provide recommendations regarding the use of those funds.

II. Scope and Objectives

The Wicomico County Health Department is seeking Requests for Proposal (RFP) from non-litigating municipal subdivisions in regard to Opioid Restitution Funds (ORF) that have been awarded to Wicomico County from the Opioid Settlement. All RFPs Non-litigating subdivisions are defined as those municipal subdivisions which did not participate in the national opioid settlement. Awarded funds are to be spent by June 30, 2025. Any funds that are not expended will carry over for the municipality to complete the program; however, the municipality will not be able to apply for additional ORF, though Wicomico County, until the program is completed. The funds may be used for the following:

- 1) Programs, service, supports, and resources for evidence-based substance use disorder prevention, treatment, recovery or harm reduction that have the purpose of:
 - a. Improving access to medications proven to prevent or reverse an overdose;
 - b. Supporting peer support specialists and screening, brief intervention, and referral to treatment services for hospitals, correctional facilities, and other high-risk populations;
 - c. Increasing access to medications that support recovery from substance use disorders;
 - d. Expanding the heroin coordinator program, including for administrative expenses;
 - e. Expanding access to crisis beds and residential treatment services for adults and minors;
 - f. Expanding and establishing safe stations, mobile crisis response systems, and crisis stabilization centers;

- g. Supporting the behavioral health crisis hotline;
 - h. Organizing primary and secondary school education campaigns to prevent opioid use, including for administrative expenses;
 - i. Enforcing the laws regarding opioid prescriptions and sales, including for administrative expenses; and
 - j. Supporting and expanding other evidence-based interventions for overdose prevention and substance use treatment;
- 2) Evidence-informed substance use disorder prevention, treatment recovery, or harm reduction pilot programs or demonstration studies that are not evidence-based if the Opioid Restitution Fund Advisory Council, established under 7.5-902 of the Health—General Article;
- a. Determines that emerging evidence supports the distribution of money for the pilot program or that there is a reasonable basis for funding the demonstration study with the expectation of creating an evidence-based program; and
 - b. Approves the use of money for the pilot program or demonstration study; and
- 3) Evaluations of the effectiveness and outcomes reporting for substance use disorder abatement infrastructure, programs, services, supports, and resources for which money from the Funds was used, including evaluations of the impact on access to harm reduction services or treatment for substance use disorders and the reduction in drug-related mortality.

Awardees are required to submit a report to the Health Officer outlining the use of the funds and the implementation process at the completion of the project.
